LOCAL ATTRACTIONS

Alaçatı is a small town located on the west coast of Turkey, which has become a popular tourist destination due to its paradisiacal beaches and its special charm. This town, with its narrow streets of white houses adorned with flowers, has a great resemblance to the neighbouring Greek islands of the Aegean Sea. On the other hand, in its flavours and customs you can also guess the Turkish and Arab culture, which make up a unique and singular blend.

GASTRONOMY & VINEYARDS

For those who love wine and gastronomy, Çeşme is a paradise for discovering unique flavours and aromas. The specialty of the area is the kumru, a sandwich made with tomato, cheese and sausage on soft and tasty bread that is only produced here. You should also try the typical cheeses, fruits and fresh seafood, in all its varieties.

What's your next adventure?

CESME CASTLE & ARCHAEOLOGICAL MUSEUM

Built by Sultan Bayezid II in 1508, Çeşme Castle, with its six bastions and moat system, is a striking historical and architectural sight. The castle has an archaeological museum with a wide array of historical artefacts that have been discovered in the region.

EPHESUS

Less than two hours from the hotel, you can also visit the tourist city of Ephesus, one of the most important cultural and commercial centres of Asia Minor during Ancient times.
